BATTLE CITY

It's on again! An invasion of the streets of Brisbane.

Once again the Turbot Street Overpass will be become a battle ground of Hip Hop, Electro and Funk back to the street with the ultimate block party vibe in Brisbane's city centre from 6.30pm on Friday 24th July.

Australia's premier dancers invade the city to compete in this annual battle of the willing.

Queensland Music Festival Artistic Director, Deborah Conway said, "Battle City, now in its eighth year, sets the stage for the most talented, dedicated and fearless b-boys and b-girls to flex their skills in a highly competitive battle environment."

This free, open air event excites people of all ages. Teams of four will face off in the traditional breaking battle stance to a soundtrack of high energy hip hop and funk as they endeavour to take each other out for the $500 cash prize. Winner takes all!

The Queensland Music Festival is a state-wide biennial celebration of musical excellence that makes the joy of music accessible to all. Whether your primary interest is in serious contemporary music, world music, regional cultural development or just taking in fantastic entertainment, QMF offers 44 events in over 20 regions throughout the State to connect with.
